PRINCIPLE 4 – SAFEGUARD INTEGRITY IN CORPORATE REPORTING

4.1	The board of a listed entity should: (a) have an audit committee which: (1) has at least three members, all of whom are non-executive directors and a majority of whom are independent directors; and (2) is chaired by an independent director, who is not the chair of the board, and disclose: (3) the charter of the committee; (4) the relevant qualifications and experience of the members of the committee; and (5) in relation to each reporting period, the number of times the committee met throughout the period and the individual attendances of the members at those meetings; or (b) if it does not have an audit committee, disclose that fact and the processes it employs that independently verify and safeguard the integrity of its corporate reporting, including the processes for the appointment and removal of the external auditor and the rotation of the audit engagement partner.	The Company's Corporate Governance Plan includes an Audit and Risk Committee (ARC) (which was reconstituted after the previous Audit Committee was dissolved). The ARC Charter is available on the Company's website at http://www.jjfma.com under Corporate Governance. The current members of the ARC are Mr. Nicholas Ong, Mr. Peter (Yap Ting) Wong (Chairman) and Mr. Zhiguo Li. Out of the 3 ARC members, 3 are non-executive independent directors and the Chair of the Committee is an independent director. Details of the ARC members' attendance at ARC meetings are set out in the 2017 Directors' Report. All ARC members consider themselves to be financially literate and have industry knowledge. Qualifications and experience of members of the ARC are found under the directors' profile in both the Annual report and on the Company's website at Directors and Management located at https://www.JiaJiaFu.com/asx/about/
4.2	The board of a listed entity should, before it approves the entity's financial statements for a financial period, receive from its CEO and CFO a declaration that, in their opinion, the financial records of the entity have been properly maintained and that the financial statements comply with the appropriate accounting standards and give a true and fair view of the financial position and performance of the entity and that the opinion has been formed on the basis of a sound system of risk management and internal control which is operating effectively.	The ARC receives declarations from the Company's CEO and the CFO in relation to full year and half year statutory financial reports during the reporting period in accordance with section 295A of the Corporations Act.
4.3	A listed entity that has an AGM should ensure that its external auditor attends its AGM and is available to answer questions from security holders relevant to the audit.	As required by Section 249K of the Corporations Act the Company to give its auditor a copy of the notice of a general meeting and as required by section 250RA, the Company's auditor (or their representative) attend the Company's AGM.

PRINCIPLE 5 – MAKE TIMELY AND BALANCED DISCLOSURE

5.1	A listed entity should: (a) have a written policy for complying with its continuous disclosure obligations under the Listing Rules; and (b) disclose that policy or a summary of it.	The Company's Continuous Disclosure Policy is available on the Company's website at http://www.jifma.com under Corporate Governance. This policy ensures that the Company is able to meet its continuous disclosure obligations under the ASX Listings Rules and Chapter 6CA of the Corporations Act 2001 (Act); and establishes internal procedures so that all directors, employees, consultants and contractors of the Company understand their obligations to disclose material information to ensure: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • all investors and participants in the market have equal and timely access to material information concerning the Company; • Company announcements are factual and presented in a clear and balanced way; and • only material information is disclosed to the market.

PRINCIPLE 6 – RESPECT THE RIGHTS OF SECURITY HOLDERS

6.1	A listed entity should provide information about itself and its governance to investors via its website.	The Company's website provides information on the Company including its background, objectives, projects and contact details. The Corporate Governance page provides access to key policies, procedures and charters of the Company, such as the Board and Committee charters, securities trading policy, diversity policy and the latest Corporate Governance Statement. ASX announcements, Company reports and presentations are uploaded to the website following release to the ASX and editorial content is updated on a regular basis.
6.2	A listed entity should design and implement an investor relations program to facilitate effective two-way communication with investors.	The Company encourages security holders to attend and participate in general meetings and makes itself available to meet investors and regularly responds to telephone or email enquiries from investors, ensuring that any information provided is that which is already available in the public domain.
6.3	A listed entity should disclose the policies and processes it has in place to facilitate and encourage participation at meetings of security holders.	The Company encourages shareholders to attend all general meetings of the Company and sets the time and place of each meeting to promote maximum attendance by Shareholders. The Company encourages Shareholders to submit questions in advance of a general meeting, and for the responses to these questions to be addressed through disclosure relating to that meeting. The Company's Shareholder Communication Policy is disclosed on the Company's website at http://www.jifma.com under Corporate Governance.

6.4	A listed entity should give security holders the option to receive communications from, and send communications to, the entity and its security registry electronically.	It is the Company's desire that shareholders receive communications electronically in the interests of the environment and constraining costs. In an endeavor to drive this objective the Company provides security holders the option to receive communications from, and to send communications to, the Company electronically.
